FOREWORD

~~The Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs was originally established in 1663 by the General Assembly of “His Majesty’s Colony of Rhode-Island and Providence-Plantations”. At that time there was one Sheriff whose responsibility was to have the care and custody of “His Majesty’s” jail in Newport. Since that time many centuries ago, the size and responsibilities of the Division of Sheriffs have grown. It was consolidated within the Rhode Island Department of Public Safety in July 2011. The Division is responsible for courtroom security and cellblocks in all state courthouses, training of personnel, extradition and civil service, and transportation of individuals charged with crimes.~~

~~The current Commissioner of the Department of Public Safety, Colonel Steven G. O’Donnell Superintendent of the Rhode Island State Police, hereby enacts this document as the official Rules and Regulations of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs. The Commissioner, who is appointed by the Governor and serves at the Governor’s pleasure, has authority to interpret these rules and regulations.~~

~~———— The Rules and Regulations manual is comprised of three (3) chapters:~~

~~Leadership~~

~~Conduct and Courtesy~~

~~Miscellaneous~~

~~All Division members are reminded that no set of rules or regulations can be established that will cover every aspect of security work that may. Many problems are resolved based on a member’s training and common sense. All members have the responsibility to learn the rules and regulations in this manual and are expected to know and assume the duties and obligations set forth herein.~~

~~All members must uphold and abide by the laws of the United States and the State of Rhode Island, and all local ordinances. All members must follow R.I.G.L. § 36-14-5, the Code of Ethics for Rhode Island State Employees, and all Rhode Island Department of Public Safety policies,~~

~~rules, objectives, and orders. Members are expected to carry out all lawful directives issued by superiors and supervisors.~~

~~All members are to act at all times in conformity with R.I.G.L. § 36-14-1, which states, “It is the policy of the State of Rhode Island that public officials and employees must adhere to the highest standards of ethical conduct, respect the public trust and the rights of all persons, be open, accountable, responsive, avoid the appearance of impropriety, and not use their position for private gain or advantage.”~~

~~Failure to comply with any rule or regulation in this manual, any subsequent policy or procedure, or any conduct that is detrimental to this Division, may result in disciplinary action.~~

~~Serving as a guide, the regulations herein contained should provide all sworn and civilian, union and non-union, line, supervisory, and managerial employees with a clear understanding of the conduct required of them as employees of the Division of Sheriffs within the Department of Public Safety.~~

2.1 Purpose

The purpose of this regulation is to provide a guide for Division of Sheriffs employees in order to ensure a clear understanding of their conduct required as employees of the Division of Sheriffs within the Department of Public Safety.

2.2 Authority

These regulations are authorized pursuant to R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-7.3-9 and R.I. Gen. Laws § 42-7.3-6.

2.3 Foreword

- A. All Division members are reminded that no set of rules or regulations can be established that will cover every aspect of security work that may arise. Many problems are resolved based on a member's training and common sense. All members have the responsibility to learn the rules and regulations in this manual and are expected to know and assume the duties and obligations set forth herein.
- B. All members must uphold and abide by the laws of the United States and the State of Rhode Island, and all local ordinances. All members must follow R.I. Gen. Laws § 36-14-5, the Code of Ethics for Rhode Island State Employees, and all Rhode Island Department of Public Safety policies, rules, objectives, and orders. Members are expected to carry out all lawful directives issued by superiors and supervisors.
- C. All members are to act at all times in conformity with R.I. Gen. Laws § 36-14-1, which states, "It is the policy of the State of Rhode Island that public officials and employees must adhere to the highest standards of ethical conduct, respect the public trust and the rights of all persons, be open, accountable, responsive, avoid the appearance of impropriety, and not use their position for private gain or advantage."
- D. Failure to comply with any rule or regulation in this manual, any subsequent policy or procedure, or any conduct that is detrimental to this Division, may result in disciplinary action.
- E. Serving as a guide, the regulations herein contained should provide all sworn and civilian, union and non-union, line, supervisory, and managerial employees with a clear understanding of the conduct required of them as employees of the Division of Sheriffs within the Department of Public Safety.

2.14 Leadership

- A. Mission Statement

1. It is the mission of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs to provide the highest level of services to the Rhode Island Judiciary and Rhode Island Criminal Justice System while maintaining the greatest degree of integrity, impartiality, and confidentiality; to treat all individuals with the utmost respect, dignity, and fairness; to work with the Department of Corrections and all law enforcement agencies in a spirit of cooperation; to protect and provide security for all who enter the Rhode Island Courts while maintaining the highest degree of professionalism and decorum.

B. Organizational Mission

1. The organizational mission of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs is distributed among its members.
2. The primary duties of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs are to provide and maintain security for judges at all state courts; to provide and maintain security in all courtrooms and other public areas within state courthouses; to provide and maintain security in the cellblocks in all state courts, and exercise all powers as required and prescribed in all other provisions of the general laws and public laws relating to the powers and duties of sheriffs.
3. The Division shall also be responsible for statewide transportation of prisoners to and from police departments, the adult correctional institutions, all courthouses, and other places of detention; transportation of persons arrested by state and local police departments to places of detention; supervising the conduct of and maintain order and discipline of the prisoners in their custody; the custody and safety of prisoners while being transported to and from court sessions, places of detention, and outside hospitals prior to commitment to the adult correctional institutions; security of prisoners during the hearing of their cases, and while in outside hospitals prior to commitment to the adult correctional institutions; the safety and welfare of prisoners in their custody; to provide security in connection with transportation in the execution of extraditions; and to perform matters related to civil process, as prescribed by law.
4. Proficiency in operation demands that the Division's form and organization be quasi-military. It must have a chain of command properly suited to its own unique demands and for the proper execution of its mission.
5. Consistent with this organizational mission, Division members shall not knowingly engage in actions, conduct or associations, either on or off duty, which compromise the authority of the member or other members, or which give appearance of improper influence on the Division member's judgment when making decisions affecting the Division, offenders or staff, or which bring discredit on the Division or undermine its goals and objectives in any way. Such action may be subject to disciplinary action.

C. Appointment of Members

1. The ~~Commissioner~~Director of Public Safety shall appoint qualified persons to serve as members of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs.

D. Superior Officers

1. A superior officer, who shall be the rank of sergeant or higher, shall conduct personal inspections at suitable intervals to determine that all assignments are performed as ordered; anticipated results are attained; Division resources are fully employed for the accomplishment of the Division's mission; and that any apparent needs or operational deficiencies of the Division are revealed.
2. A superior officer shall supervise and allocate responsibilities to subordinate officers, maintain discipline, and enforce Division rules, regulations, policies and procedures. A superior officer plans, supervises, and reviews the work of all Division of Sheriffs personnel and reports all to ~~their~~his/her Commanding Officer.
3. A superior officer shall make an immediate, impartial report to his/her commanding officer relating any incident that he/she is aware of that involves a violation of the rules and regulations of the Division by any subordinate member of the Division. He/She shall similarly bring to the attention of his/her commanding officer any complaint lodged against any member or employee by another person.
4. A superior officer shall not abuse those under his/her command by disrespect of their dignity as human beings.
5. A superior officer shall inspire confidence and industriousness in his/her subordinates by the use of tact in giving orders and by constructively correcting mistakes.
6. A superior officer shall avoid, as far as circumstances may permit, the censuring of a subordinate in the presence of others, and he/she shall be fair and impersonal in evaluating the work of subordinates.
7. A superior officer shall be responsible for the development and maintenance of proper professional attitudes of his/her subordinates in their dealings with the public.
8. Upon assignment, a superior officer shall assist at, be present for, or conduct shift briefings in accordance with specific orders of his/her commanding officer. He/She shall be responsible that all special duty assignments, orders or instructions necessary for the proper performance of the Division's mission are carried out.

2.52 Conduct and Courtesy

A. Obedience to Law

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall obey the laws of the United States and the State of Rhode Island, ordinances of local jurisdictions, and court orders. If it is proven that a member has violated this rule of conduct, the fact that no criminal prosecution was instituted against the member shall not bar internal disciplinary action. A conviction of the violation of any law shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this rule of conduct.

B. Obedience to Rules and Regulations

1. All members of the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs shall promptly obey, without reservation, the Rules and Regulations of this Division. A violation of these Rules and Regulations, or of any Division policy or directive, may be sufficient cause for disciplinary action. Ignorance of these Rules and Regulations shall not be considered a justification for any such violation.

C. Obedience to Superior Officers

1. Members shall promptly obey all lawful orders given to them by a superior officer. The chain of command will be followed and respected at all times. If an order is not understood, it is the responsibility of the member to obtain clarification from the superior officer. Members who are given orders that appear to be in conflict with previously issued orders, rules, or regulations shall respectfully inform the superior officer who issued the conflicting order. The responsibility for resolving the conflict will then be assumed by the superior officer. If the superior officer does not alter or retract the conflicting order, the member shall promptly obey the order.
2. All general or special orders, directives, memorandums, notices or other orders printed on authorized Division of Sheriffs forms that have been approved by the ~~Commissioner~~Director, Chief Sheriff, Major, Commanding Officer, Department of Public Safety; ~~and/or Special Assignment Officer~~ shall have the force and effect of a Division of Sheriffs regulation.

D. Acceptance of Responsibility

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall accept the responsibilities imposed upon them by law as to their duties and authority. All members are required to be calm and firm in their actions at all times, and will act together to protect the public and each other from danger.

E. Reporting Requirements

1. Members shall immediately report any information received, either on or off duty, which may have an impact on the safety and security of Division staff, the Judiciary, or Departmental operations. Even if a member is uncertain about the significance of information received, the member shall immediately report it to his/her immediate supervisor.

2. Members of the Division of Sheriffs who observe or who have knowledge of violations of laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, or official orders on the part of another member shall immediately report such incidents to their immediate supervisor. If for any reason, members fear that providing this information to his/her immediate supervisor may place them at risk of personal harm, they may report this information directly to the ~~Department of Public Safety, Special Assignments Captain who oversees the Division of Sheriffs~~Chief Sheriff.
3. Supervisors are required to relay any information described above to the ~~appropriate authority~~Chief Sheriff.

F. Courtesy

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall treat members of the public, visitors to Division offices and facilities, and individuals who call the Division on the telephone ~~shall be treated~~ with courtesy, dignity, and respect at all times.
2. Members shall be tactful in the performance of their duties, shall control their tempers, exercise the utmost patience and discretion, and shall not engage in argumentative discussions even in the face of extreme provocation. Members shall not use coarse, profane, or insolent language or gestures, and shall not express any prejudice concerning race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, religious belief, age, gender, politics or similar personal characteristics when speaking to or about members of the public. This prohibition shall also apply to communications via radio or telecommunications equipment, electronic and voice mail, the Internet, and all integrated computer networks.

G. Conduct Unbecoming

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty, in such a manner as to bring credit to the Division. Conduct unbecoming in a member shall include any misconduct, on or off duty that violates federal, state, or local criminal codes, as well as any activity, on or off duty, that undermines the work or authority of the member or other members, brings discredit on the Division, compromises the Division's mission or operations, or adversely affects the public trust.

H. Conduct

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall constantly perform their duties in a responsible, dignified, and professional manner.

2. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not participate in any incident involving moral turpitude that impairs their ability to perform as members of the Division of Sheriffs or cause the Rhode Island Division of Sheriffs to be brought into disrepute.

I. Harassment and Discrimination

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not use language, engage in conduct, or prepare written communication intended to harass, discriminate against, ridicule, taunt, demean, embarrass, insult, or provoke other members of the Division, members of the offender population, or members of the public because of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, religious belief, age, gender, politics or similar personal characteristics.

J. Use of Alcohol on Duty or in Uniform

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall neither consume nor purchase intoxicating beverages while on duty or while wearing the Division uniform. The presence or consumption of alcohol on Division premise, in Division vehicles, or while wearing a uniform or article of clothing with identifying insignia (e.g. badge or patch) that give the appearance of being on duty at the Division of Sheriffs, is strictly prohibited.

K. Abuse of Alcohol Off-Duty

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs, while off-duty, shall refrain from consuming intoxicants to the extent that it could constitute unbecoming conduct as described in these rules, or render them unfit to report for duty if they are called back in an emergency. Members shall not consume any alcoholic beverage during the four hours prior to the start of their regular shift.

L. Alcoholic Beverages in State Facilities and Vehicles

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not possess, use, or store alcoholic beverages in any state facility or vehicle at any time.

M. Use of Drugs

1. The presence or consumption of controlled substances is strictly prohibited unless they are being taken pursuant to a valid medical prescription.
2. Members who are in possession of prescription medication while on duty must take steps to assure that these substances are stored in such a way that they are not accessible to the offender population.

3. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not consume excessive medications before or during a duty shift. Any member taking prescription medication that may affect his/her performance on duty is obligated to notify his/her supervisor.
4. Division members may not be in the possession of a weapon while under the influence of any medication that impairs judgment.

N. Notification of Contact with Law Enforcement and Administrative Agencies

1. Members are required to provide their superior officer with written notification of arrests, and notice of arraignment dates by law enforcement authorities.
2. Members are required to provide their superior officer with written notification of Restraining Orders, No Contact Orders, driver license suspensions or expirations, or any professional license expirations or suspensions issued against them.
  - a. Professional license suspensions or expirations shall only apply to members who need a specific license in the performance of their duty.
3. Members are required to provide their superior officer with notification of any non-duty related contact with law enforcement.

O. Suspected Intoxication

1. If a superior officer has reasonable suspicion to believe a member is under the influence of an intoxicating beverage and/or drugs while on duty, the member shall be immediately required to submit to tests to determine intoxication.
2. Reasonable suspicion must be supported by specific facts which may include, but are not limited to the officer's appearance, speech, behavior or odors; reports and observations of the officer's alcohol or drug related activities; unexplained changes in behavior or work performance; observed impairment in ability to perform duties.
3. Any refusal to submit to testing shall be considered a positive result. An officer subject to reasonable suspicion testing shall be entitled to union representation throughout the process if requested.
4. Alcohol breath testing shall be performed in accordance with Rhode Island Department of Health protocols, by certified collection personnel.
5. If a blood sample is required, competent personnel will take the member to a medical facility for extraction of the sample. The time lapse between the initial report of the member's condition and the intoxication tests shall be accurately recorded. Any person ~~required~~ requesting to submit a blood sample shall be afforded the opportunity, at his/her own cost, to have an additional blood chemical test.

P. Gratuities, Gifts, Rewards

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not knowingly solicit or accept any gratuity or any other item of value where there is any connection, however remote, between such offer or solicitation and the member's position with the Division of Sheriffs.
2. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not directly nor indirectly solicit or accept from any member of the public, member of the offender population, members of the immediate families, visitors, representatives, or business associates of offenders, former offenders, or immediate families, visitors, representatives, or business associates of former offenders any gratuities, gifts or rewards, nor shall they:
  - a. Solicit or accept any gratuities of merchandise, meals, beverages, or any other item of value that is intended to influence their or any other member's actions in any matter of Division of Sheriffs business, or which might cast an adverse reflection on the Division of Sheriffs or any of its employees.
  - b. Solicit or accept any gift or gratuity from other members if such items would adversely affect the member's duties.
  - c. Solicit or accept any reward for services rendered in the performance of the member's duties.
  - d. Solicit free admission to places of amusement for themselves or others.
3. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not directly or indirectly identify themselves as Division of Sheriffs officers for the purpose of gaining personal advantages or avoiding the consequences of illegal acts performed by themselves or by other individuals.
4. Solicit any discounted services or merchandise offered as a result of their employment with the Division of Sheriffs. This rule shall not apply to gratuities or discounts offered to members of the Division of Sheriffs which are offered to all law enforcement officials (or government employees), so long as the gratuity or discount is not actively solicited by the member of the Division of Sheriffs.

Q. Abuse of Position

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not use their official position, official identification cards, badges or uniform for:
  - a. Personal or financial gain for themselves or others.
  - b. Obtaining privileges not otherwise available to them, except in the performance of duty.
  - c. Avoiding the consequences of illegal acts.
  - d. Seeking social contacts under official pretenses.
2. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not lend to another person their identification cards or badges or permit them to be photographed or reproduced.

R. Permitting Illegal Activities

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not authorize any individual to violate any law, ordinance, or court order under any circumstances. When an individual requests permission to perform an act of questionable legality, the member shall inform the individual that he/she cannot authorize anyone to breach the law.
2. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall not create the impression that an individual may violate the law as long as the Division of Sheriffs does not learn of the violation.

S. Insubordination

1. Insubordination or disrespect towards superior authority is strictly prohibited. Insubordination is defined as a failure to recognize the authority of any superior officer by disrespect or by disputing the superior officer's lawful order.
2. Members shall not exhibit abusive behavior toward a superior officer, including but not limited to, displaying a disrespectful, insulting, or threatening attitude by use of language, expressions or gestures.
3. Members shall not refuse to attend, cooperate with, or answer questions truthfully during interviews or in requested reports with the Division or Department of Public Safety. Members are prohibited from impeding, obstructing or otherwise interfering with an official investigation of the Division of Sheriffs or Department of Public Safety.
4. Members shall not publicly criticize the Division of Sheriffs or the Department of Public Safety, its policies, or other employees in speech, writing, or other forms of expression. Members shall never speak maliciously about the Division, its' policies or members. Any complaints shall be sent through proper channels. This provision is not intended to preclude the exercise of members' rights under state and/or federal law. This provision shall not apply to union officers speaking on behalf of union members regarding working conditions.

5. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as to interfere with, contradict or prohibit a member of the Division of Sheriffs from exercising their rights under the First and Fifth amendments of the United States Constitution. Nothing herein shall prohibit a member of the Division of Sheriffs from invoking their rights under Garrity v. N.J. 385 U.S. 493 (1967).

T. Conflicts of Interest

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs shall have no interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, nor shall they engage in any business transaction, or professional activity, or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in conflict with the proper discharge of their duties in the public interest.
2. Members of the Division are forbidden to take part in the selection or promotion of any member of their households, immediate families, or of the immediate families of spouses or children.
  - a. Immediate family (to include blood, marriage, and step relationships) is defined as parent, grandparent, spouse, including common law, brother, sister, child, and grandchild.
3. No favoritism will be shown by any Division member to any subordinate or vendor as a result of a personal relationship.

U. Use of Tobacco

1. Members of the Division of Sheriffs may not use tobacco in any form when performing any official duty in direct or immediate contact with members of the general public. When permitted to use tobacco, members must do so in a manner that will not offend others. All members will comply with the Governor's smoking policy and all state laws regarding smoking while on duty. Smoking in any state facility, building, vehicle, or office is prohibited.

V. Relations with Division of Sheriffs Employees

1. Relationships between members of the Division of Sheriffs shall be characterized by respect, courtesy, patience and cooperation.
